EVANSTON.

The principal society event of the year in this city was the first appearance of the Evanston Thompsons, a newly organized dramatic troupe composed exclusively of home talent. This new organization put on "Tags, the Wolf," at the Evanston opera house last night, which drew one of the great crowds ever jammed into that big structure.

Miss Hortense Spence, a little blonde beauty of rare talent, scored a decided hit as "Tags the Wolf," a character that afforded her an excellent opportunity to exercise her diversified powers. Miss Bessie Parkinson, as the wife of a New Orleans saloonkeeper, was an acknowledged success. Miss Almada Hansen, as the deserted wife of a professional gambler, made an acknowledged hit. Miss Bertie Allard, as a French adventuress, driven from Paris for the theft of jewels, sustained herself gloriously. Frank Howarth, Ed Weeks and John Olsen Jr. comprised the additional support of Miss Spence and played their parts like old-time professionals. There is an abundance of dramatic talent in Evanston that opportunity alone can develop. As to Miss Hortense Spence, this handsome, talented young lady possesses all the elements that will make her a rival of Julia Marlowe if she is given the opportunity—that alone is all that is lacking. Miss Spence can sustain herself under any conditions that may arise.

One of the pleasant events of the week was the afternoon card party, Wednesday evening, given by Mrs. Jack Lauder at her home on Center street. About twenty of her friends were invited and the game of sixty-three was thoroughly enjoyed. The cozy rooms were most artistically decorated for the occasion, in green and white; small tables were placed in the drawing room, each table having a distinct decoration. The palms and flowers were also a part of the color scheme, which was very effective. The menu was a most delicious one, consisting of five courses. Those assisting the hostess were Miss Mary Nelson, W. N. Tomlinson and Miss Ida Foote. The prizes were two handsome, hand painted plates, which were won by Miss Nelson and Miss Tomlinson. Those present were: Mrs. G. N. Miles, Miss Mary Cahin, Mrs. Ed Lewis, Mrs. D. Wicks, Mrs. J. Gottstein, Mrs. Dr. C. Downey, Mrs. Leavitt, Mrs. Davis of Salt Lake, Mrs. W. N. Tomlinson, Mr. Ed Kennedy, Mrs. U. C. Nelson, Mrs. H. Christie and Miss Foote.

A most pleasant surprise party was given to the retiring officers of the relief society of the Latter-day Saints' church of this city last Thursday afternoon. The affair was arranged by members of the relief society and was a grand surprise in every particular, as the guests were not expected. The affair was one long to be remembered by the society of this ward.

"It Goes Right to the Spot."

"When pain or irritation exists on any part of the body, the application of Ballard's Snow Liniment will give prompt relief. 'It goes right to the spot,' said an old man who was rubbing it in, to cure his rheumatism. C. R. Smith, proprietor Smith house, Tenaha, Tex., writes: 'I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment in my family for several years and have found it to be a fine remedy for all aches and pains, and I recommend it for pains in the throat and chest.' 50c and $1.00 at Z.
